THE FIREMEN'S GRAND BALL. The fourth annual concert and ball of the Wallingford fire department in the armory last evening was, as was expected it would be, the event of the season. At an early hour the guests began to arrive and when the grand march began at 9:30 o'clock all the available space in the building was The concert by Professor Hill's orchestra was very fine and well received. There were 152 couples in the grand march and fully fifty more who did not go in the march. The armory was elaborately decorated after the canopy top style, with delicate shades of pink, green and white draperies. Around the sides and ends were festoons in the national colors and On either side of the stage were arranged boxes, four in number for the warden and members of the court of burgesses, the families of the late Robert Wallace and Samuel Simpson and Judge Hubbard, after whom the three companies of the fire department are named. In front of each box hung a large picture of the gentlemen named. The effect of the decorations was very neat and with the crash covered flood the brilliant assemblage of elegantly costumed dancers, the brilliant effect of the arc lights, fine music, etc., the evening will be one that will not soon be forgotten. The decoration was the work of the New Haven Decorating company and eclipsed anything of the kind ever seen here before.
